Listen to the story.

Literacy

Writing sentences

Ask your child to look at their labelled bucket from yesterday. What can they see in their bucket?

'In my bucket I can see a fish.'

How can they make their sentence more interesting?
Can they describe the fish?
The colour?

How it moves?

The size?

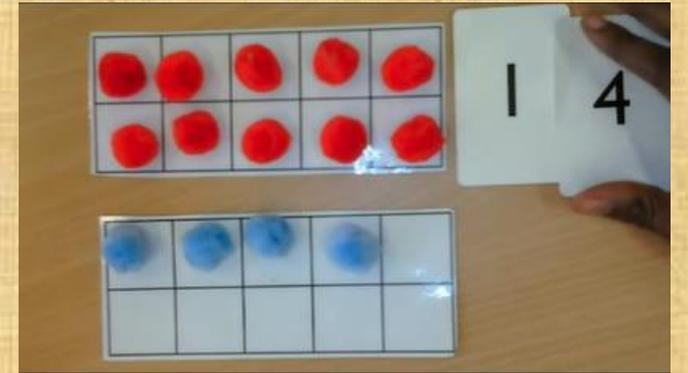

'In my bucket I can see a small orange fish.'

Ask your child to write some sentences describing what is in your bucket.

Remember to use all the sounds you can hear and use finger spaces.
