Dear Parents

I hope you are all safe and well at home. At the end of last term, I certainly wasn't expecting to be back in this position in school in January. I am sure you all felt as I did when the news was announced. None of us likes to have children at home, however as somebody from Public Health said to me today, this is about reducing transmissions in our own community and the fewer children we have in school the more likely we are to lower this number.

If your child is at home, please be aware that the work set online is the same as that being given to children who are here. Please also let us know if you need help with any of it - please refer to the letter that went out last week for the best way of doing this. All families will be getting a call from a member of staff in the next week or so if you haven't already had one, to see how things are going at home.

Thank you to critical worker parents who are helping us keep numbers as low as possible in school in this lockdown. This helps to protect your own family as well as the families of other children and staff.

Finally, thank you for all of the supportive messages sent in. They have made a big difference to staff this week and last.

Stay safe at home everyone!

Alison Patchett

If any parents are looking for additional or alternative materials for home schooling, don't forget BBC Bitesize and the Government's Oak Academy websites. Both of these have many lessons to watch online.
